

Hot Candidates!

5 Employment Trends for 2018

One important trend is that training and development will be utilized to fill the gaps in employee skill sets which is essential for Generation Z employees, who are demonstrating a soft skills gap.

Workforce issues, including hiring, training and retaining talent will continue to be a focus of manufacturing companies in 2018.

Here are some trends that Industry Week predicts will have significant implications for both employees and jobseekers.

1. Working from home is on the decline as workplace well-being is prioritised.
2. As the economy continues to improve, employers will invest greater sums into the training and development of their employees.
3. An increasingly aging workforce will have ramifications for employees of all ages
4. Bullies continue to affect the workplace
5. Technological / AI advancements will continue to influence the workplace

Article written by: Jeff Shane is President of Allison Taylor, a reference checking company

Further information can be found on:

<http://www.industryweek.com/talent/5-employment-trends-2018>

New recruits

Administrator/ Database Manager Beautifully presented, systems focused administrator recently relocated to Whangarei. Extensive experience in the wholesale travel industry, articulate and methodical worker. Positive personality and strong management experience. Experience producing training manuals and guiding teams through system enhancements. A+ candidate. Currently temping, available end July 2018.

Logistics Manager / Class 2 Driver Experienced logistics manager recently worked in the honey industry ready for a new challenge. Class 2 experience, has forklift and RTW endorsements and experience. Enjoys working outdoors, coordinating staff and product and creating workable plans. Steady worker, quiet achiever, loyal employee and great combination of customer service/hands-on laboring and driving skills. Available immediately for full time positions.

Accounts Administrator Beautifully presented, switched on Accounts Administrator available immediately for full time work. Strong computer skills, accounts payable and receivable experience. Very driven, down to earth – will get snapped up very quickly!

Sales Star Outgoing, motivated, very well-presented sales professional looking to move from Auckland to Whangarei. Instantly builds rapport, great attitude, looking for an exciting new challenge. Available with 3 weeks' notice for full time positions.

Vintage Car Restorer / Builders' Apprentice A jack of all trades! Comprehensive experience restoring rare and vintage cars. Not qualified but diverse skill set and great attitude. Partially qualified builder with renovations experience. Available beginning of July for full time work.

HR Manager Very motivated, positive candidate looking to get out of Auckland. Degree qualified, well rounded knowledge of HR. Has coordinated globally distributed teams and has very strong communication skills coupled with an easy-going and approachable personality. Very well presented, came across A+ at interview. Available with 6 weeks' notice.